

I believe that the limitation on cross-ownership of media outlets is essential to getting unbiased news. Cross ownership rules minimize news distortion that may occur if one organization holds all local news outlets. Many news outlets have a financial stake in presenting a biased view of the news. A wide variety of individually owned outlets is unlikely to be able to saturate one area with a particular view.